Review of the Brown Bag Program. – Mindy Mangilardi

Elaine Graybill, Kim Hays, and Steve Klay were thanked by the Council for their work on this program. The council reviewed the program and concluded that it provided an excellent opportunity to hear the concerns of constituents and to provide additional communication with campus leaders. Members also felt that the program was successful and good way to serve constituents. Discussion took place on how to improve the program in the future.

Review and discussion of the Council's 2004-05 accomplishments – Mindy Mangilardi

Accomplishments identified by council members were -

- President Bowman’s participation in the Welcome to A/P Council program.
- The development of a training session/orientation for new A/P Council members
- The revision of the A/P Council constitution and the clarification on the roles of the council and members
- The continuation of a member of A/P on the Academic Senate
- Work on making it policy to have A/P representation on position searches at the Vice President and Dean levels
- Brown Bag Program that provided A/P members with opportunities to hear and speak with campus leaders
- The Council impact on the discussion of student fees before the vote by the Board of Trustees
- Continuation of regular meetings between the A/P Council Chair and the President to discuss issues related to A/P staff
- Work with Human Resources on issues that affect A/P staff and employment
- The Council continued its work and strengthened its position as the advisory body on matters of institutional policy that impact A/P constituents

Items in American Democracy Project Materials for Campus Audit – Jess Ray Discussion took place regarding two recommendations made by the American Democracy Project’s Institutional Intentionality Subcommittee. Those recommendations are: 1) “[Faculty and Staff participation in civic activities should be valued and credited through evaluation processes, tenure processes, awards processes, and media promotions,” and 2) “ISU employee benefits (faculty, A/P, & Civil Service) should reflect a value for civic engagement through the support of time off w/pay for X hours or X days of civic engagement/community service.”

Cancellation of June 23, 2005 meeting – Mindy Mangialardi

The council discussed and agreed on the cancellation of the meeting due to summer schedule.

Adjournment

The Council adjourned at 2:55 p.m. Moved and seconded by Mike Baum and Mboka Mwilambwe.

Respectfully submitted,
Jess Ray, Acting Secretary
